

WILLCOX
SAVAGE

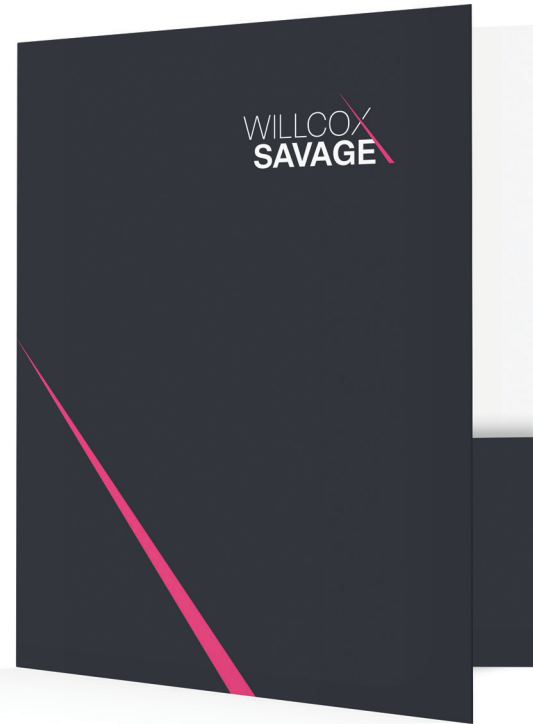

Annual Report

New Look for the Next Generation

Our last significant brand re-boot was more than a decade ago. Since then, we've ushered in a new generation of partners and associates. Our new branding captures the dynamic energy of our current team and our zeal for supporting our clients in key transactions and high-stakes litigation. Our logo may have a different look, but our standards continue to be exacting – quality work is our hallmark and superior client service is our calling!

WILLCOX
SAVAGE

Welcome to Our New Associates!

Bryn Clegg is an associate in the Catastrophic Loss and Tort Defense group. She joined the firm after completing a one-year clerkship with Judge Miller in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia. Bryn is a graduate of William & Mary Law School and she received her B.A. degree from Brigham Young University in 2013.

Allie Frasca is an associate in the Real Estate group. She is a 2022 graduate of the University of Richmond School of Law. Allie received her B.A. degree from the University of Virginia in 2018.

Amelia Gilmer is an associate in the Maritime group. She is a 2022 graduate of the University of Richmond School of Law. Amelia received her B.A. degree from the University of Virginia in 2018.

C. Alex Retzloff is an associate in the Labor and Employment and Fair Housing and Public Accommodation practice groups. Alex is a 2021 graduate of the University of Virginia School of Law. He received his B.A. degree from Washington and Lee University in 2015.

Newest Of Counsel!

Dan Stillman

is Of Counsel in the Maritime group. Dan is a 2012 graduate of the Syracuse University School of Law where he earned his

J.D. degree and an M.A. degree in International Affairs. He received his B.A. degree from Johns Hopkins University in 2006. Dan worked most recently as an attorney in the Virginia Beach office of Troutman Pepper. Before that, Dan spent seven years practicing maritime law at the admiralty firm of Davey & Brogan in Norfolk.

Richard Wasserman

is Senior Counsel in the Bankruptcy and Creditors' Rights group. Prior to joining the firm he was with an Am Law 200 firm. Richard is a Fellow in the American College of Bankruptcy and a member of the Board of Directors. He focuses his practice in matters involving bankruptcy and bankruptcy-related litigation, creditors' rights, secured transactions, workouts, reorganizations and restructurings.